11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

This Sunday's Gospel from Mark carries a significant message regarding faith and the Kingdom of God.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus appears reluctant to reveal his identity as the Son of God. After performing miracles of healing, he warns those cured to tell no one (see Mark 1:44, 3:12, 5:43, 7:36, and 8:26). Also, when preaching, Jesus chooses to speak to the crowds in parables, leaving them to discern his message. Only to his disciples does he explain the parable's meaning, and he does this in private at a later time.

Today's Gospel Reading consists of two parables about seeds. In the first, Jesus tells those gathered that this is "how it is with the kingdom of God." A man scatters seed which over time sprouts and develops. Then when the grain is ripe, the man harvests his crop. The emphasis in the parable is on the seed, which seemingly has the power to grow on its own. In this it is like the Kingdom of God. While on earth, Jesus planted the seeds of the kingdom by his life, miracles, teaching, and suffering. However, the kingdom is not yet fully established. Although already present in Jesus and his group of twelve, it has yet to come to fruition; just as the seed in the parable needs time to grow, so does God's kingdom.

The second parable focuses on the tiny mustard seed. Though not the smallest of all seeds, it is most likely the smallest that a first-century farmer in Jesus' part of the world would have sown. Small as the mustard seed is, it develops into a tree. Though the mustard tree generally averages only nine to twelve feet in height, it has a wide expanse and provides a nesting place for birds. Just as the tree welcomes the birds, so is God's kingdom welcoming and open to many.

These parables help us discern something about the kingdom of God and our own faith. In God we live and move and have our being, but God is a mystery and his kingdom, though present, has not yet come into its fullness. Today, the Kingdom of God is present in the Church. The mission of proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom given to the Apostles is now given to us. But just as seeds need time to come to fruition, so does the Kingdom of God. That is why in the Lord's Prayer, we pray, "thy kingdom come." We know that it will come in its fullness at the end of time. All we need is faith.

Farewell from the Struan Community

Religious of Mary Immaculate
Struan House, 44 Augustus Road
London SW19 6NB
4th of June 2021

Dear Father Phillip,

From Struan House - a house that has been a "Home away from Home" to so many young girls throughout these 64 years and where so many our Sisters have shown so much that is good, bearing witness with their lives in the style of Saint Vicenta Maria - we want to thank you most sincerely.

We thank the Lord for all that you and the Parish have done for Struan House. You have been part of our community. We could always count on you for all our needs. You reached out to us spiritually - celebrating mass for us, listening to the confessions of the Sisters and the girls. It was a privilege being part of the Parish of Our Lady and St. Peter.

We have always felt welcomed and it was a joy to distribute communion, participate in the rosary of the Legion of Mary, take confirmation classes, accompany the formation of the youth, and be of service in all the little things. We enjoyed all the activities organized by the parish- picnics, Christmas lunch, pilgrims and we can feel from the deep of our hearts that we are part of this family in faith.

Our charisma is rooted in the life of our Church, we are in the Church, we are with the Church and we are for the Church and at the end of our physical presence in this Community we are assured that this rooted eternally.

We thank the Lord for all those parishioners who have been somehow part of STRUAN HOUSE, for all those who have loved this place, celebrated many special events with us and helped us in various ways. For the hidden acts of kindness, generosity, friendship, and concern for us that many have expressed, we are most grateful. Above all we thank you for your prayers for us.

As we bid farewell, we carry you in our hearts and in our thoughts and assure you of our prayers. For the past we say 'Thank You' and to the future 'Yes'.
