GOSPEL REFLECTION

We are being asked today to decide whom we will serve. For four weeks we have been presented in the liturgy with the mystery of the Eucharist. God has promised us a new homeland, eternal life, and offered us bread from heaven to strengthen us on our journey. He has given us the words of eternal life.

We must believe, as Peter says today, that Christ is the Holy One of God, who handed himself over for us, gave his flesh for the life of the world. As we hear in today's Epistle, Jesus did this that we might be sanctified, made holy, through the water and word of baptism by which we enter into his new covenant. Through the Eucharist, he nourishes and cherishes us, making us his own flesh and blood, as husband and wife become one flesh. Let us renew our covenant today, approaching the altar with confidence that, as we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord will redeem the lives of his servants.

PROVIDENCE ROW

Providence Row will be hosting a special service, Calming of the Storm. It is a service of thanksgiving and reflection and you are warmly invited to attend via Zoom. The service will be led by Father Christopher Vipers of St Mary Moorfields Catholic Church.

Providence Row's CEO Tom O'Connor will provide an update on the amazing work the service teams have carried out in their response to tackling homelessness during the pandemic. We will be joined by external speakers who will talk about their journeys of faith and responding to homelessness and you will have a chance to find out how you can join our community of support as we seek to support all who are homeless or vulnerable in the next year.

The service will be held on Thursday 2nd September 19:00-20:00 on Zoom.

Entrance is free, although donations are welcome. They will be used to provide vital support services to people facing homelessness in London :<https://www.providencerow.org.uk/?form=calmingthestormdonations> . If you would like to join us, please RSVP via our website: <https://www.providencerow.org.uk/events> or contact getinvolved@providencerow.org.uk.
