14th Sunday In Ordinary Time (C)

Gospel Reflection:

Does God really love us? Does God really care? These and other similar questions may arise in our minds when something bad happens. Yes, God does care. God cares more than we can ever imagine. God does love us more than we can ever imagine. God loves us more than we love ourselves. In some kind of strange way, I like to think that God is closer to us than even our heart is to us!

Our Scripture readings today give us a picture of God's closeness to us and God's care for us, but indeed all the Bible from its very beginning paints that same picture of God's loving concern for us. God called Abraham to begin to form a people who would understand his love for them and respond to him. When his people became trapped in Egypt God raised up Moses to lead them to freedom and God performed the greatest miracle of the Old Testament, the Exodus, leading them through the water to safety on the other side. God gave his people the covenant through Moses at Mount Sinai as a sign of his love for them. When they failed to live by his covenant, God raised up prophets to try to steer them back again to live by his covenant. The first reading today (Isa 66:10-14) is an excerpt of the prophet Isaiah and the excerpt begins with God encouraging his people to be happy because of his love for them. Three times in the first lines of the reading God encourages his listeners to be happy for what will happen to Jerusalem; he says, "rejoice," "be glad," "exult." God wants us also to rejoice, be glad, and exult. In that same first reading, God describes his love as that of a mother for her child: "as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you." (Isa 66:13) We all know the beauty of the love of a mother for her child, and God says his love for us is like that. Of course, God's love for us is much stronger than the love of a mother for her child but when we see the love of a mother for her child it should remind us of the far greater love of God for us. Does God really love us? Does God really care? Yes, God does care. God loves us and cares more than we can ever imagine.

July - The Month of the Precious Blood

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

"The Precious Blood which we worship is the Blood which the Saviour shed for us on Calvary and reassumed at His glorious Resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of His risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the Blood made present on our altars by the words of Consecration; it is the Blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washes and beautifies our soul and inaugurates the beginning of eternal life in it."
