26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

Pope Francis on the Feast of the Holy Rosary

Today is the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. I invite everyone to rediscover, especially during this month of October, the beauty of the prayer of the rosary, which has nourished the faith of the Christian people through the centuries.

I invite you to pray the rosary, and to carry it in your hands or in your pockets. The recitation of the rosary is the most beautiful prayer we can offer to the Virgin Mary; it is a contemplation on the stages of the life of Jesus the Saviour with his Mother Mary and is a weapon that protects us from evils and temptations.

The Blessed Virgin Mary has urged the recitation of the rosary in her apparitions, "especially in the face of the threats looming over the world."
"Even today, it is necessary to hold the rosary in our hands, praying for us, for our loved ones and for all people.

Prayer, is "letting ourselves be carried by God," especially in moments of suffering or temptation. "In some evenings we can feel useless and lonely. It is then that prayer will come and knock on the door of our hearts. And even if we have done something wrong, or if we feel threatened and frightened, when we return before God with prayer, serenity and peace will return as if by miracle." Elijah is a biblical example of a man with a strong contemplative life, who was also active and "concerned with the events of his time. Elijah confronted the king and queen after they had Nabot killed to take possession of his vineyard in the first Book of Kings.

How much we are in need of believers, of zealous Christians, who act before people who have responsibility with the courage of Elijah, to say, "This must not be done! This is murder."
"We need Elijah's spirit. He shows us that there should be no dichotomy in the life of those who pray: one stands before the Lord and goes towards the brothers to whom He sends us."
The real "proof of prayer" is "love of one's neighbour," when one is prompted through a confrontation with God to serve one's brothers and sisters.

Prisoners Sunday - 9th October

There will be a National Day of Prayer for prisoners, their families and all who work in or are affected by the criminal justice system on 9th October.

PACT supports prisoners and their families. It's work is rooted in Catholic Social Teaching, bringing hope into the prison environment. It also serves families who experience long periods of separation from loved ones. For more information about PACT, including details of how to volunteer to help them in their work see their website www.prisonadvice.org.uk.

There will also be a second collection for PACT on the weekend of 8th/9th October.
