Philip Moger - A New Auxiliary Bishop for the Archdiocese of Southwark

On Monday 28 November 2022, it was announced that His Holiness Pope Francis has appointed Mgr Philip Moger as an Auxiliary Bishop for the Archdiocese of Southwark. A priest of the Diocese of Leeds for 40 years, Bishop-Elect Moger has, until now, been the Rector of the National Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham in Norfolk.

Born in 1955, Bishop-Elect Philip Moger grew up in Halifax, Yorkshire. His mother died when he was five and he was raised by his grandmother and father. He began his working life in banking and then entered St Cuthbert's Seminary at Ushaw in County Durham to begin studies for the priesthood.

He was ordained for the Diocese of Leeds in 1982 and was appointed an assistant priest at St Urban's, Headingley, also serving as a chaplain to the local school, a Sue Ryder home and a hospital for people with learning difficulties. In 1985 he was appointed to the Diocesan Pastoral Centre in Ilkley to serve the renewal of parishes and schools.

In 1992 he was appointed an assistant at Leeds Cathedral and was also appointed as Vocations Director. He served as Bishops' Secretary and as a Parish Priest in parishes in Bradford and Leeds. In 2008 he returned to Leeds Cathedral as Dean. He was appointed a Prelate of Honour, with the title Monsignor, and subsequently a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter. He chaired the Diocese of Leeds Liturgical Commission, was Director of Liturgy of the Diocese of Leeds Lourdes Pilgrimage and was also responsible for the liturgies during the Papal Visit of Pope Benedict XVI to Great Britain in 2010. In September 2020 he took up the appointment as the Rector of the National Shrine of Our

Following the news of his appointment, Bishop Elect-Moger said:

As well as being very surprised, I am humbled indeed by the Holy Father appointing me to be an Auxiliary Bishop of Southwark. I accept this calling with a glad and open heart. I shall, of course, be sorry to leave England's National Shrine of Our Lady, in Walsingham, and my home Diocese of Leeds, but I look forward to moving even further south, getting to know the Archdiocese of Southwark and working with Archbishop John Wilson, Bishop Paul Hendricks, and the clergy, religious and lay faithful in South London and Kent. Throughout my priesthood, and the various missions entrusted to me, I have much to thank God for. In Walsingham, England's Nazareth, I learned much from the many faith-filled pilgrims who sought to be wrapped in Our Lady's mantle of prayer. I have much to learn once more, and I depend on Our Lady's prayers and yours. Our Lady of Walsingham, pray for us.'

NOTICE BOARD

The Passage - Big Give Christmas Challenge

This fundraising campaign will be open until Tuesday 6 December at noon. It is hoped to raise £500,000 through matched funding to ensure continued support for those most at risk of experiencing homelessness this Christmas and into next year.

The Passage will be doing all it can to prevent people spending even one night on the streets, and for those that do, to help them move into stable accommodation as quickly as possible. The pressure is rising for many of us, but for some more than others. If you would like to support our work this Christmas use <https://donate.thebiggive.org.uk/campaign/a056900002NEXYwAAP> and you can get involved in the campaign.
