7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER (A)

Last Thursday we celebrated the ascension of the Lord. In this week we shall be preparing for the manifestation of the great promise of Jesus. The disciples watched him as he pierced the skies and vanished from their sight. Two angels appeared to them and asked them not to keep looking at the sky. This does not mean they should not pay attention to things above where Jesus had ascended. It means that that they should keep their minds above and their eyes around to see the work waiting for them; to carry out the missionary mandate to go out to the whole world and make disciples of all nations. They had to leave the Mount of Olive and continue what Jesus has started.

They went to the Upper Room and stayed together in prayer. In that air of uncertainty, they did not know what the future had for them. The question they asked Jesus just before his ascension shows that the events that were happening around Jesus were still not clear to them (they were still hoping for the earthly restoration of the kingdom of Israel). Jesus knew this and he promised another an Advocate who would make everything clear to them and show them the direction to go in his absence. In the Upper Room prayed together waiting on God. Mary was with them and other women in union of prayer. This was in imitation of their master who prayed before any task he undertook. Prayer was a necessary preparation for every important event in the life of Jesus. Whenever Jesus entered into prayer, he came out with results. Before the beginning of his public ministry he fasted and prayed for 40 days and nights. The result was overcoming temptation of the devil (Matt. 4:1-11). On the Mount of Transfiguration while he was praying, he was transfigured and suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared. The result was the strengthening the faith of the apostles in Jesus and hope in reward of heaven ((Matthew 17:1-8, Mark 9:2-8, Luke 9:28-36). Before he entered into his passion, at Gethsemane, he prayed and the result was he was given the strength to undergo his passion (Matt. 26:36-56).

Anthony Lydekker RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Anthony Lydekker who died recently.

Second Collection

There is a Second Collection this weekend for World Communications Sunday.

Hail Holy Queen Prayer

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope.

To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Amen

DBS Checks

Representatives from the Archdiocese Safeguarding office will be visiting the parish on 27th May to meet those of our helpers for whom DBS checks are required.

Teas/Coffees after 10am Mass

There will be tea and coffees in the hall after the Sunday 10am Mass

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church

How did Jesus interpret the Law?

Jesus interpreted the law in the light of the twofold yet single commandment of love, the fullness of the Law: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets" (Matthew 22:37-40).

GIFT AID SCHEME

If you are a taxpayer, for every £1 you give to the parish, we can get another 25p.
