HOLY FAMILY (A)

The Flight into Egypt (c.1647-1650)

Bartolomé Esteban Murillo (1617-1682)

...we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we await for it with patience.”

(Romans 8: 23-25)

Throughout his letters, St. Paul refers to hope, one of the three theological virtues: “So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” (I Corinthians 13: 13) As this year ends we Christians should remember we are people of hope. The things we long for as disciples of the Risen Christ—mercy, forgiveness, eternal life—are not the tangible, material things so valued by the world but they are what makes us human beings. Whatever occurs in 2026 let us always be people of hope.

Wishing you all a very Happy and Prosperous New Year

Fr. Philip, Fr. David and Fr. Michael
