SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE NATIVITY

Journey of the Magi: Procession of the Youngest King (c.1459-1464)

Magi Chapel Palazzo Medici Riccardi, Florence

Benozzo Gozzoli (1420-1497)

On Tuesday 6 January we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany, a Holyday of Obligation. It is a day when we recall the journey of the wise men from the east to visit the infant king of the Jews, Our Lord Jesus Christ. Even if we do not travel very far during our time here on earth, as human beings we remember our lives are not static but a journey. We grow; we develop; we encounter new people and new ideas; and at the heart of our travels is our journey towards God. The passage of the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt to the freedom of the Promised Land is repeated again and again in our individual lives as we encounter God in Sacred Scripture, the traditions and teachings of the Church, in prayer and in silence, and in our role as members of the society in which we live and work. Now this is not always easy; in some cases and for some people, it can be difficult and dangerous; but as disciples of the Risen Lord we recall the words of today’s Psalm:

“For he shall rescue the needy when they cry,
the poor who have no one to help.
He will have pity on the weak and the needy,
and save the lives of the needy.”

(Psalm 72: 12-13)
