HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY (A)

The Holy Trinity (c.1630) - Francesco del Cairo (1607-1665)

Eternal God, eternal Trinity, you have made the blood of Christ so precious through his sharing in your divine nature. You are a mystery as deep as the sea; the more I search, the more I find, and the more I find the more I search for you. But I can never be satisfied; what I receive will ever leave me desiring more. When you fill my soul I have an even greater hunger, and I grow more famished for your light. I desire above all to see you, the true light, as you really are.

I have tasted and seen the depth of your mystery and the beauty of your creation with the light of my understanding. I have clothed myself with your likeness and have seen what I shall be. Eternal Father, you have given me a share in your power and the wisdom that Christ claims as his own, and your Holy Spirit has given me the desire to love you. You are my Creator, eternal Trinity, and I am your creature. You have made of me a new creation in the blood of your Son, and I know that you are moved with love at the beauty of your creation, for you have enlightened me.

Eternal Trinity, Godhead, mystery deep as the sea, you could give me no greater gift than the gift of yourself. For you are a fire ever burning and never consumed, which itself consumes all the selfish love that fills my being. Yes, you are a fire that takes away the coldness, illuminates the mind with its light and causes me to know your truth. By this light, reflected as it were in a mirror, I recognise that you are the highest good, one we can neither comprehend nor fathom. And I know that you are beauty and wisdom itself. The food of angels, you gave yourself to man in the fire of your love.

PARISH NEWS

FLOWER TEAM: MORE RECRUITS ARE NEEDED

We have a number of people who arrange the decoration of the flowers in the church. The displays add warmth, beauty and colour to our church. Yet it is true that many hands make light work, so it would greatly help if we had more volunteers for our flower team. This does not mean to say you have to be an excellent flower arranger already but just willing to learn and to volunteer your time and talents. If you would like to join the team, please contact Fr. Philip.

SATURDAY READERS URGENTLY REQUIRED

Thanks to those who have come forward to read at Mass. Unfortunately we are still in need of more readers for Saturday evenings. Please consider volunteering to read if you attend our masses on a Saturday evening. Speak to Fr Philip after Mass if you are able to help the parish by proclaiming the word of God.

MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS

Pope Leo XIV has just written his first Encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas, regarding the safeguarding of the human person in the time of artificial intelligence. The opening paragraph of the Encyclical states:

“Humanity, created by God in all its grandeur, is today facing a pivotal choice: either to construct a new Tower of Babel or to build the city in which God and humanity dwell together. Each generation inherits the task of shaping its own era, of guiding history to become a place where the dignity of every person is safeguarded, justice is promoted and fraternity is made possible. Yet every era also runs the risk of creating an inhumane and more unjust world. Whenever humanity is in danger of marring its true identity, we Christians lift our eyes to the Incarnate God, knowing that it is “only in the mystery of the Word made flesh that the mystery of humanity truly becomes clear.” [Gaudium et Spes 22] In Jesus Christ, this humanity in its grandeur becomes the Way, the Truth and the Life, opening the path for each of us to grow toward fullness.”

The Encyclical can be read on the website of the Holy See (https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/encyclicals/documents/20260515-magnifica-humanitas.html#_ftn1) and printed copies are available from the Catholic Truth Society from 28 May at a price of £6.95 plus postage.
